Entering into 2024

A new year is about to begin. I am expecting a lot of changes in the world that will inspire people to think about eternal life. The most common time for people to think about the things of the Lord is when they are experiencing significant life change, and are finding themselves redefining their lives in some way. The Gospel of John programs have been broadcasted during most all of 2023, and the second run will be completed at the end of this coming February. This is a popular book in the Bible for people to start with when they are exploring the faith, and I have met a lot of new people through broadcasting these programs. From my experience, there will be a lot of people referring others to these programs in the coming years.

This is the time of year when a lot of people make end of year donations to ministries. We tend to see a decline in December and January, instead of an increase. This has a lot to do with our donors being average people who give a part of what they have left over every month, but the additional holiday expenses absorb that. It's something I have observed for 17 years now, so it is just something I generally anticipate. If by chance you find it possible to add a little extra to what you would normally give, it would make a big difference in offsetting this seasonal decline for us.

The purpose of Living God Ministries is to tell people about Jesus, so they might know Him. A part of what we do is to help clear away many of the false beliefs that are obstacles in people's faith that prevent them from knowing Him. We measure the success of what we do by the feedback we receive from listeners. Some of this feedback is posted on the recent testimonials page on the website, so others can see how people's lives have changed. I know a lot of people enjoy reading these, because they themselves can identify with what is said, and they really enjoy seeing others come to know the Lord as they do. For those who send us donations, this is also a way of appreciating the value of those donations, because without them, the purpose of this ministry would not be fulfilled by us.

Living God Ministries functions with the simplest model possible. Donations are received; recordings are produced and broadcasted on radio stations. We respond to correspondence and do not spend donations on fund raising campaigns. We have a long and well documented history of contributing to the faith of a lot of people. We communicate the truth the Lord has revealed, people grow in a relationship with Him, and they experience change and transformation through knowing the Lord, not us.

We have developed exceptional relationships with the owners and managers of the radio stations we are broadcasting on. They know our effectiveness and results are beyond compare. We have no shortage of opportunities to broadcast on more stations, but we do have a shortage of donations. If more people would commit to donating to this ministry, we could easily expand and reach more people. I do not feel shy about asking people to do this, because I see the result of lives being changed every day. We do not use spiritual extortion; we do not have symbiotic relationships with churches that give to us out of their mission budgets so we refer people to their congregations. We do not have foundations or people supporting us because we are popular or have a large following. I have no shortage of people who give me excuses like, "someone else will do it," and, "I won't believe that out of the large numbers of people who benefit from your work, only a small handful actually support it." Living God Ministries is a way you can participate in reaching out to more people, so they can know the Lord as you do. Take advantage of the opportunity while you can, because this privilege is not going to last forever.

Most Sincerely,
Aaron
Teaching Pastor for Living God Ministries

Recent Testimonials

It's mind blowing to think about how much error and indoctrination I have sat under in my lifetime. I find your teaching so helpful. Thank you!

As I continue to move away from a gospel of repentance and obedience to and surrender to His grace, I am finding an increased richness coming into my life. The constant striving and sense of failure has been removed and is being replaced with an appreciation of who the Messiah really is. What a joy it to love Him for who he is and not be on a performance treadmill where I was becoming 'a greater child of hell than before I began'.

But what I am most confident in now, is my relationship with Christ. With the truth that you helped me understand and was revealed in the gospel. I see a clear path to my relationship with God. As a former Catholic, my whole life was trying to straighten out my sin behavior and honestly it controlled every aspect of me, including my influence over my wife and children. But since I have completely excepted Christ's forgiveness for the work he completed, I experienced relief for the first time in my life. I came to Christ around 2013 and bounced around for a moment looking for the perfect church. Somewhere in that search, I discovered you and Living God Ministries on long drives to my jobs sites. What a relief it was Aaron. I had never heard the gospel spoken like that or heard anyone challenging the status quo of Christianity. I have been following your work for at least eight years now and navigate my spiritual life with prayer, open communication with Jesus and your teachings.

My relationships with the Lord changed dramatically after listening to your teaching's. It's a blessing to know the Lord with such confidence and understanding my faith on him had literally grown more in the two or three years I been listening to you and all your teachings than the 33 years I spent on the other organization after giving my life to the Lord and being born again

Thank you for reaching out to me. Ever since I was a young child I knew there was a God. Through the years of marriage, raising a family and working, I attended various churches, answered more than one altar call and tried to read the scriptures. My Christian life wasn't going anywhere. In 2016 I had recently retired and then went through a number of operations to save/restore my eyesight. While recuperating, I started to listen to various podcasts, audio books and radio stations. One day this Jewish guy named Aaron Budjen was on KBRITE, talking about the 3 days and 3 nights that Jesus was in the grave. A door opened up inside me. The scriptures suddenly had meaning and context, and I began my personal journey to know the Lord. I believe the holy spirit finally broke through that day! Recently I've been going through your verse by verse study in the book of John. Your discussion of how a church can be unified through a few simple truths made an impression on me and why I've been attracted to your teachings. The essence of your teachings involve two simple truths: forgiveness and the restoration of life are the foundation of the Christian life. From there, the Christian life is an ongoing personal and dynamic relationship with Jesus.

The past 2 years have been an eye opener for me since I discovered your Livinggodministries website. I cannot thank you enough for the clarity you have brought to the scriptures that I have read and listened to other people/pastors/commentators speak about.

Valley Springs, CA

Since I discovered your studies and incorporated some into my growth in my relationship with my God, I am very much praying differently, not at all like before. Also, I believe that I'm aiming more realistically with my faith walk. There are still struggles. But your teachings have provided me with some new truthful tools, that I am approaching my Christian journey with a new understanding.

Thank you Aaron for all of your messages. Life changing message - when I listened to your series on Forgiveness!!! Now I am able to forgive others with the complete forgiveness that Jesus provided for me. Amen.

Laguna Niguel, CA

Aaron, thank you for what you've given your life to do that has helped me significantly in understanding the bible and waking me up to having a personal, one-to-one relationship with God that is growing. I'm so appreciative and my God bless you fully and each day.
