Question on Changing Hearts

Often time, people would tell me to pray for people who refuse to accept Christ, and ask God to change their minds, and turn their hearts to God.

Will God changes people hearts so they will accept Him? Did Jesus Christ change people minds when he was on earth?

The Response:

It is my sincere belief that the objective of God is to get people in His life who He cannot create. These people are those who will be in His life because they genuinely want to be, and know Him because they really do want to know Him as a person. The belief that He will intervene in people's minds goes against this belief I have of the fundamental purpose for creating the earth and mankind to begin with.

With Thanks,
Aaron

Recent Testimonials

Thank you Aaron. I trusted Christ for Salvation in 1996 and tried for decades to get my life straightened out. I heard you teach on Forgiveness and I have not looked back. Once I embraced God's forgiveness and acceptance I have seen growth in my life. your teaching has been a catalyst to help me grow spiritually.

I do also want to just express my gratitude for the work you have done in your ministry. It has been tremendously helpful to me and for the first time in my life as a Christian (of many, many years) I finally have a firm perspective on scripture and a renewed enthusiasm in my relationship with the Lord. So thank you.

I want to send an email to thank you for all of your podcasts. We just finished the podcast on the Book of John and I was able to understand so much through your teachings. Thanking God for the abilities and knowledge He has given to you.

I was excited to hear you will be doing a new study on Corinthians. I have problems understanding this book. Keeping you in my prayers for a wonderful and blessed 2025. Thank you for all you do.

Thank you so much for your ministry. I have learned more from your teaching than five years of Bible school.

Colorado Springs, CO

We are still listening weekly on Sundays and to the radio archive often. I find myself going back to teachings that have brought me great encouragement and relistening often. We appreciate so much the truths we have learned through your ministry that have helped us to walk in the freedom we have in Christ, and to know the Lord better.

Thank you for making the decision to become a Pastor. You have helped countless people, including me, to learn, understand and mature in their faith. Nearly fifteen years ago, I first heard you on my commute home, and have since listened to many of your radio archive messages. I recently finished the book of John which has helped me maintain a sense of calm and peace. Some years in the past I didn't listen to our messages too often, but I am beginning to do so again. I truly appreciate you and the fact that your work is purely about Scripture.

God has put a few people in my life who are trailblazers and guides along my spiritual journey. You have been one of those people! The Christian life is to "know your God!" is something I have learned from you and I'm grateful for that.

Long Beach, CA

The first time I listened to you on (station) I said to myself, this is my kind of teaching. He is telling the truth and making the New Covenant easy to understand. We need more Grace teaching to live in the joy of the Lord.

Well Aaron, I discovered you on the radio in 2015. Your teachings have drastically changed the way I view Scripture. I love your Jewish interpretation on a lot of things, especially Jesus' parables. In fact it's hard for me to even attend church these days because I know some pastors aren't interpreting it right. Your lesson on forgiveness, identity, and justification have made me more secure in my election than any pastor.

I grew up in California. I grew in xxxxx with xxxxx. I grew up on xxxxx Fellowship with xxxxx. I went to School of Ministry at xxxxx. Done tons of missionary work, taught the Scriptures, etc. But God had used you to open my eyes to something that was right in front of me the whole time.

Your right Aaron, pastors dont want to teach complete forgiveness of sins because they think it will give people an excuse to sin. And its sad really. I grew in a self righteous environment where "If it's not Christian then its sin" left me in bondage for a long time.

Thank you, I thought I needed a lot of study and I studied a lot of theology but what I needed was to know the Living God. There's nothing better than that. Now I get to be led into all truth and your work has been a great help in this. I was much troubled by the philosophy taught for truth but thank God he intervened and made me alive so he can guide me into all truth. If it wasn't for Him I would still be troubled and not know what it is that I had needed. I had needed to know Him, I had needed life. Now I know what it means for the blind to see and the deaf to hear. Because I was blind and deaf but not anymore! Many would have others depend on them and teach them things that are not true so that they can continue to have the religious organizations which they live off but you have helped me a lot as I am sure you have helped many others through this ministry. Thank you so much!
