Broadcasting Corinthians

We have been broadcasting the radio programs on First Corinthians, and have been receiving a lot of positive responses. The recordings on the Gospel of John were designed for people who are recently saved, and these are for those who have been in the faith for one or two years. Most people never grow in their faith beyond initial salvation and the development of hope in being in Heaven. The reasons why people tend to remain immature in their faith are normally related to a poor understanding of forgiveness and the differences between living by the Law or the Inheritance. Seeing God as one who is in total control, instead of one who is relational and an active participant is another contributor to the failure to grow and mature. For these reasons, and others, believers can easily be in the seventies and eighties, have been in church all their lives, and still be in the category of a person who someone who has been in the faith for one or two years.

I have not yet completed the recordings for First Corinthians, so we might have to delay broadcasting new messages around the end of November or beginning of December. I will upload the Ephesians programs at that time, and will finish out the messages on Corinthians afterwards, recording them while Ephesians is broadcasting. Do understand that producing a 25 minute recording takes many hours, and this is balanced out with correspondence, and administrative tasks that follow up from reaching out to over half a million people every day. I also have to return to doing fund raising soon to hold our present positions on the stations we are broadcasting through.

I will follow up the First Corinthians messages with recordings for Second Corinthians.

With Thanks,
Aaron

Recent Testimonials

As a Messianic believer who has recently gone from "lukewarm" to on fire, I am learning so much from you Aaron. God bless.

I am currently teaching a women's Bible study on I Corinthians. I've been listening to Aaron's messages on this. The truth that he's conveying is mind-blowing as I have realized lies that I have believed for 70 years. Because of Aaron's teachings, I believe that as far as salvation is concerned, God has done it ALL. I believe He has already sanctified me completely. He sees me as righteous and this is totally mind blowing to me! I can't add anything else to salvation (as in working to get the sin out of my life), but what I CAN do is learn to come to the Tree of Life each day and live from Him. I desire to abide there and not strike out on my own anymore. I want my life to reflect this truth "in Him, I live and move and have my being." I want to be consumed with knowing Him and experience in reality all that He has already given me in Christ Jesus. I want my focus to be on Him and not on myself or in what I can or cannot accomplish, for apart from Him, I can do nothing. This is where I'm coming from and my obedience is in BELIEVING and this, for me, has been a huge work because I have had to let go of believing that I can play any part of getting the sin out of my life. My purpose is to know and love and enjoy Him forever. This is enough for me to occupy myself. Thank you for presenting TRUTH in very understandable ways!

I cannot begin to tell you how grateful I am to have found you on YouTube. Beginning at Hebrews six and moving on regarding sin in general you have answered questions I've sought answers for forever. I've struggled with future sins big time. You're teaching is so easy to understand. I will be watching all your videos and thank you again. I have found freedom and I believe this is helping me to begin to relate to God in a new way. Thank you again, Aaron.
