Correspondence

This April we saw a substantial increase in new people discovering Living God Ministries. The pattern seems to relate to Easter, and people thinking about the things of the Lord. I have not yet seen a correlation to the programs I recorded on the three days and three nights. It seems like a general inspiration with about the same number of people finding us through radio as through the Internet. It is a little more noticeable this year, compared with previous ones.

We are also starting to see an increase of people from Europe with world war three escalating. A lot of people from the United Kingdom are starting to listen through the Internet and email in questions. I mentioned this would likely happen several times previously, and this is what the Gospel of John programs were recorded for.

Long ago, I was working executive protection for international bankers in Europe. I learned a lot from them, especially when on long airplane flights. One time, during a social gathering, I watched the person I was protecting talk with a person he just met. Part of the conversation was about people who they both knew personally. He told the guy he was talking with to ask this third person about him some time. The look on the other guy's face was very surprising, and I asked the guy I was with about it later when we were returning. He explained to me that he could have told this new guy all about himself and how he was trustworthy, reliable, and a good person to make agreements with, but his testimony about himself would be of no value in comparison with the testimony of another.

For the past ten years I have posted the best of the comments from listeners on the recent testimonials page. When people ask me what I do, I just tell them to read through it a little and see what others say about the work I have done. If they really want to know what I do, they can take a few minutes to find out for themselves. Otherwise, I am perfectly fine with them having no real interest in me at all.

What I want you to embrace, is that your testimony of the Lord Jesus matters. In many ways, it is more powerful and effective than His testimony about Himself. The New Testament for example was not written directly by Him, although I definitely do believe in His participation in it being written. The letters we have are the testimony of people like, Matthew, Luke and Paul about Him, and they are far more effective than if He wrote the content Himself. Your testimony about Him, when you talk with people in person, or through the Internet really does matter, and can be more effective in drawing people to the Lord Jesus than if He spoke to them directly right away. Tell others about how He has changed your life, who you are because of Him, and about some of the things you have learned that have been important to you.

Most Sincerely,
Aaron
