Recent Testimonials

We cannot express our gratitude to our great God for giving us discernment in what we were previously being taught and opening the eyes of our understanding to His Truth. I have been walking with the Lord for 30+ years. It is so apparent that the Lord has given you an amazing gift of teaching the distinction between the Old and New covenants. You won't be surprised in hearing that our relationship with God had been for the most part "teetering in between" the two! Now, after many years asking to be led in Truth and desiring to know Him, we are experiencing the freedom the Messiah gives when He sets us free. No longer held in bondage to the old thus being prey for Satan.

I can't begin to express how your ministry/teaching has changed/saved my life. Growing up in a Southern California conservative evangelical home, with parents that loved the Lord, I thought I understood everything there is to know about Christianity. I, personally, accepted the Lord at age 21, but struggled in trying to justify the 'sin issue' and how some sins were tolerable and some simply were not. However, it wasn't until many years later, at age 49, that I was enlightened on what the message of the gospel truly is about and the freedom that knowledge gave me, and it is all thanks to your radio programs that I stumbled onto while living/working in Las Vegas, NV. I was going through a very painful period of my life, the most painful, and as such I was raw for a deeper understanding of what life and God meant. Your teaching hit me like a stack of bricks and brought me to a relationship with the Living God that has transformed me from a Christian participating in the age old exercise of 'repentance and obedience' into an obeyer of the faith and one who seeks a daily intimate relationship with my Lord and Savior. It all makes sense to me now. The shackles of adhering to the law have been removed, and I walk in a newness of life all thanks to you, Sir. I am forever grateful that the Lord put me in a place where I was ready to listen and He directed my ears to your ministry. Praise the Lord!

Thank you Aaron for giving us a deeper insight into the scriptures. I have listened to many Bible teachers and they all talk about "salvation" but never explain what it really means. You however, go right to the heart of it. You make understandable the fundamental eternal truth: through Jesus and what he accomplished we can have life again. The spirit of God can be restored through a priceless gift!

I was a churchgoer who didn't know if I was saved. After seeing a message from a false prophet I was doubting if I really had the Holy Spirit and I was panicking about baptism, tongues, prophecy, repentance, and works. I was so upset that I was making myself physically sick. I was unable to eat, drink, or sleep much for days. I had paralyzing anxiety and thought I was going to die of a heart attack from it. All I could do was cry out to the Lord. During this a friend recommended your ministry and I heard the true gospel of grace for the first time. My crippling fear and anxiety were replaced with a true peace I never thought I could find. Instead of being unable to sleep because of anxiety I am now unable to sleep because I am excited that I get to know my God. I still have my moments of panic or fear but I am learning how to have a relationship with my God and it is truly beautiful.

You have such an excellent way of explaining the sin problem. The Law stirs up sin. I would never have figured that out if you hadn't brought it up. God is not disgusted with you. That is wonderful news. Forgiveness is not the same as salvation. This I also learned from you. Thank you

I read your testimony on the Living God Ministries website and felt inspired to tell you that I've been saved, and to ask you for more information that will help me in my growth in my relationship with God, through the Lord Jesus Christ.

Mind you.....I've never read a bible, scripture, testament, etc. I don't even know the real meaning of those words! So, every information I will receive I will gratefully accept and try to make sense of. Is there help available in case I simply don't understand the language used, or is it part of my journey to figure all this out by myself?

I still remember my husband telling me about your broadcasts as he commuted home from work. I finally started listening to you and have forwarded and recommended so many of your series to people. There is so much confusion about the gospel. I still remember taking notes on your series on the Sermon on the Mount and going over them with my sons at dinner one night because they were so astonishing and so much more revealing of who Jesus was and who God is than the traditional interpretation. I know a lot of people are happy with a mainstream, extremely mediated faith. I am not and I've tried to encourage my children to reject it and go straight to God. Even though we are a lot older now, we still get people asking about ideas of faith and we almost always encourage them to listen to your radio archive. I thank God for you.

What first caught my attention was Aaron's explanation of speaking in tongues. It made more sense than anything I had ever heard before. That radio broadcast led me to the Living God Ministries archives, where I heard Aaron teach about the gospel, the will of God, forgiveness, and so much more. For the first time, I clearly understood the distinction between the old and the new covenants and realized that many churches were teaching a blend of the two. That realization revolutionized my thinking and completely changed my life. It transformed the way I read Scripture and the way I viewed my relationship with God. At the time, I was single with no children. Today, I've been married for nearly 20 years, I'm the father of three, and this is the understanding of the gospel I've taught my children their entire lives. I remember talking with Aaron back when I lived in Colorado Springs. I told him I believed he was a prophet. He laughed it off, but I still believe it's true. I'm deeply thankful for Aaron and for Living God Ministries. Without this teaching, I believe I'd still be trying to earn God's forgiveness instead of resting in the finished work of Christ.
